

Natalie Caine

Missouri State University; University of Missouri-Columbia
Board member since 2024

Natalie Caine, chief administrative officer of Mayo Clinic in Rochester, provides administrative leadership and oversight for Mayo Clinic in Rochester in partnership with Amy W. Williams, M.D., executive dean of Practice. Ms. Caine is a member of the Mayo Clinic Executive Operations Committee, the Mayo Clinic Board of Governors and Board of Trustees, and the Mayo Clinic Administrative Team. She is the secretary of the Midwest Executive Operations Team at Mayo Clinic and serves as chair of the Poverello Fund Committee.

Ms. Caine began her career at Mayo Clinic in 2005 as an administrative fellow and, most recently, was the associate administrator for the Department of Medicine in Rochester. She also served in roles of operations manager and operations administrator, supporting various areas of the Rochester practice.

Ms. Caine holds the rank of assistant professor, Health Care Administration, in the Mayo Clinic College of Medicine & Science. She is board-certified in healthcare management, is a fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE) and serves as the executive sponsor for the Southeast Minnesota chapter of ACHE.

Ms. Caine earned a Bachelor of Science in Marketing from Missouri State University and a Master of Healthcare Administration from the University of Missouri-Columbia. She completed her administrative internship at Yale New Haven Health System in New Haven, Connecticut.