

Richard K. Davis

California State University, Fullerton
Board member since 2017

Mr. Davis is the former executive chair and former chief executive officer of U.S. Bancorp, parent company of U.S. Bank, one of the largest commercial banks in the United States. Mr. Davis served as executive chair from 2007 to 2018, CEO from 2006 to 2017, and held various other executive positions at U.S. Bancorp, including president and chief operating officer. During his career he has served as chair of the Financial Services Roundtable, chair of the Consumer Bankers Association, chair of The Clearing House, and representative for the Ninth District of the Federal Reserve, where he was president of its Financial Advisory Committee. He was also one of three executive co-chairs of the 2018 Minnesota Super Bowl Host Committee. Mr. Davis served as the president and CEO of Make-A-Wish America, a position he held from 2019 to 2022. Mr. Davis currently serves on the board of directors of Mastercard Incorporated (since June 2018), Wells Fargo and Company (since 2022), and Dow Inc. (since 2015), including service as Dow's lead director (since April 2021).