

Jed V. Davis

University of North Florida
Board member since 2023

Jed Davis is chairman of the board and chief executive officer of DDI, Inc., which operates the Davis Family Office headquartered in Jacksonville, Florida. As such, he serves as an officer and/or director of its affiliated entities. Through these entities, he oversees various business operations and investment interests in land and timber properties, master plan community developments, commercial real estate, and the private and public equity markets.

Mr. Davis is a graduate of the Episcopal School of Jacksonville and the University of North Florida, Magna Cum Laude. Mr. Davis currently serves on Jacksonville University's Davis College of Business Executive Advisory Board, The Jacksonville University Public Policy Institute, The Bolles School Board of Trustees, and is the founder and club director of the Jax Lax Lacrosse Club.