

Research process

Researchers work to determine why some tumors respond to standard combination chemotherapy and radiation while others grow during treatment, recur or metastasize, and what key role immunotherapy may play. Fusion negative (FN); fusion positive (FP).